The Daily Courant.

Fryday, March 19. 1703.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated March 15.

Warſaw, February 25.

GEneral Rheinſchild is drawing together all the Swediſh Forces that are on this ſide the Viſtula, in the Neighbourhood of Blonia; The Swedes keep the River unpaſſable by breaking the Ice in thoſe places where they are poſted, to the end they may not be ſurpriz'd by the Lithuanian Commander Poccey, who is with a Body of Troops at Ploskow. The Convocation ſummon'd by the Cardinal Primate is put off to the 27th of March; and the Cardinal is about to return to Lowits. The Rebellion of the Coſſacks in Podolia is quite ſuppreſs'd.

From the Harlem Courant, dated March 15.

Marienburg, March 1. The Report of the Defeat and Suppreſſion of the Coſſacks continues, and that their General Paley having deſerted the Party of the Rebels, has joyn'd himſelf to the Poliſh Army with 6000 Men; But the taking of the Swediſh General Steinbock, and the Death of General Horn before the Town of Samos is not confirm'd; tho' ſome Letters from Socol adviſe, That the Poles have reſcued out of the hands of the former the great Booty he took lately, and that he himſelf hardly eſcap'd them; on which occaſion Collonel Herr was kill'd,

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated March 15.

Hanover, March 9. Yeſterday my Lord Woodſtock, Son of the Earl of Portland, went from hence to Zell, where he will continue a few days, and then return homewards by the way of Bremen, as will likewiſe moſt of the Engliſh Gentlemen that are now at this Court. The Duke of Zell has withdrawn his Troops out of Hildeſheim, and the King of Pruſſia his out of Northauſen. The King of Poland held a Senatus Conſilium at Marienbourg on the 27th of laſt Month, in which it was reſolv'd, 1. To find out Means to Pay the Crown's Army part of their Arrears. 2. To give the Deputies from that Army a certain Sum out of the King's Treaſury, to defray the Expence of their Journey. 3. That the Cardinal Primate, in calling a Diet by his own Authority, has acted againſt the Conſtitution and Laws of the Kingdom. 4. That for the Future when the King once ſtiles out his Univerſalia, the Nobility ſhall mount on Horſeback without waiting as has been uſual for a ſecond Summons. The General Diet will be held on the 16th of this Month at Marienburg.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 20.

They write from Warſaw, that the King of Poland's Saxon Forces that were drawn together in the Neighbourhood of Thorn, are now encamp'd on that ſide of the Viſtula near Sabroczin, and the Swedes on the other ſide. That the King of Sweden is advanc'd to Kloczow within 14 Leagues of Warſaw. That they had Advice of a Party of the Poliſh Nobility's having beaten a Party of Swedes, and taken from them 3000 Ducats, which they had levyed as Contributions on divers Places. As alſo, that the Sieur Oginsky, General of the Republicans of Lithuania, has receiv'd a Reinforcement of 10000 Muſcovites, and has taken by Stratagem the ſtrong Caſtle of Birzen.

From the Harlem Courant, dated March 17.

Amſterdam, March 16. They write from Dantzick, that the Engliſh Envoy Mr. Robinſon is paſs'd through Warſaw, in his way to the King of Sweden. The King of Poland has ſent 140 Waggons, each drawn by 4 Horſes, from Marienburg, to fetch Powder, Bullets, Grenadoes, and other Ammunition from Memel.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 15.

Rome, Feb. 24. The Senate and Magiſtrates of this City, preceeded by the Judges and Officers of the Courts of Juſtice, went on Wednesday laſt in Proceſſion from the Town-Houſe to the Cathedral of St. Peter, and offered on the Altar, dedicated to that Apoſtle, a Calice and 4 great Wax-Candles, and have reſolv'd to do the like Yearly, in Commemoration of the City's being deliver'd from the Danger of the late Earth-quakes. The Boxes that were plac'd in the Churches, to gather the Charity for Relieving thoſe that ſuffer'd moſt in the Province of Umbria and elſewhere, being open'd on Monday laſt, there was found in them 10000 Crowns, which is 2000 leſs than was put into them the Week before. The Earth has been felt to move agen in Romagnia, which oblig'd the Biſhop of Ancona, to go on Foot in Proceſſion attended by the Clergy of his Dioceſs, to our Lady of Loretto. On the 16th the Earth ſhook violently at Marino, 12 Leagues from hence, which Place receiv'd Damage by it, and the Inhabitants have ſince made a Proceſſion hither to viſit the Scala Santa, in the Church of St. John Lateran. The Pope's Legs are ſo ſwell'd that he can't walk without being ſupported, yet he would be carry'd 2 Days ago, with great Ceremony and a numerous Attendance to St. Peter's Church, where he began the Te Deum himſelf, which was ſolemnly ſung to return Thanks for the Preſervation of this City. Cardinal Fourbin has taken occaſion to preſs His Holineſs to revoke his laſt Bull againſt Exceſs in Apparel; repreſenting to him, not only that a great many French Tradeſmen, who are ſetled in Rome, would otherwiſe be undone, but likewiſe that the Holy See would loſe 40000 Crowns Yearly out of the Cuſtoms ariſing from the Importation of the Manufactures of France: The Officers of the Cuſtoms have ſeconded the Cardinal Fourbin; and 'tis thought His Holyneſs may be inclin'd to comply in this Matter. The Pope has appointed a ſet Number of Matrons to endeavour to perſwade the Courtiſans to amend their Lives, and has exhorted the Sacred College toencourage by their Liberality, ſuch of thoſe Women as ſhall appear to have ſincerely repented of their Evil Courſes: To which Uſe Cardinal San Ceſareo has given 500 Crowns, Cardinal Imperiali 600, and divers others have given greater Sums. The New Congregation eſtabliſh'd by the Pope, to conſider of repairing the Towns that were overturn'd by the Earth-quake, has repreſented to him that 'tis not good to rebuil'd Norcia on the ſame Spot of Ground, becauſe they find in the Archives, that that Place was formerly ruin'd by an Earth-quake in the Year 1323.

Genoa,

Genoa, Feb. 24. Several Engliſh and Dutch Commiſſaries arriv'd lately on the Coaſt of the Gulf della Spezze, who have bought up a great Quantity of Proviſions for Victualling the Squadron of Ships of thoſe Nations that is to come into the Mediterranean; for which purpoſe they have receiv'd Remittances to the Value of 40000 Piſtoles. 2 Men of War and 4 Frigates are come out of Toulon, to convoy 20 French Merchant Ships bound to the Levant, that they may not fall into the Hands of the Zealand Privateers: One of which Privateers lately brought into Leghorne a Prize valued at 60000 Crowns.

Venice, March 3. The Convoy fitted out for the Levant at length ſail'd on Sunday laſt, with a favourable Wind. They carry 1000 Recruits, with a great Sum of Money, and much Ammunition of War, for our Troops in thoſe Parts. The Chevalier Juſtiniani is gone in this Fleet on his Embaſſy to Conſtantinople. By a Bark that is arriv'd from Chioza, we have Advice that 3 Zealand Capers have taken in the Gulph of Venice, one of the French Frigates that have been ſo troubleſome in the Adriatick, and are in purſuit of 2 more.
